

NAACLT 1999

University of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada

May 7-8, 1999

- Síle Scott, University of Ottawa
 - The Acquisition of Irish: Guidelines for Comprehension
- Kenneth Nilsen, St. Francis Xavier University
 - Ceart na Gaeilge: A Plea for Improved Standards in the Teaching of Irish in North America
- Nancy Stenson, University of Minnesota
 - Language Attitudes Among First-Language Speakers of Irish in the USA Today
- Robert Burke, Columbia, Maryland
 - From Accountants to Zoologists and in between: Experiences in Irish Language Teaching
- John Donahue, Champlain Regional College, St-Lambert, Quebec
 - Theories of Language Acquisition
- Robert Orr, University of Ottawa
 - Celtic as Non-Exotic: a Comparative Approach
- Marta Weingartner-Diaz, Indiana University, Indianapolis, Indiana (USA)
 - New Learners for a New Century? A Welsh Case Study
- Paul Birt, University of Ottawa
 - Teaching Welsh in a Hispanophone environment: the Welsh-Argentinian experience
- Thomas W. Ihde, William Paterson College of New Jersey (USA)
 - The Independent Language Learner and Technological Advances
- Gearóid Ó Néill, Ollscoil Luimnigh, Luimneach, Ireland
 - A Guide to the Pronunciation of Irish
- Muiris Ó Laoire, Institiúid Teicneolaíochta, Trá Lí, Ireland
 - Learning Irish for Participation in the Irish-Speaking Community of Ireland