

Announcing the 2018 Conference of the North American Association for Celtic Language Teachers (NAACLТ)

The conference will be held May 23-26, 2018 at Memorial University, St. John's, Newfoundland.

NAACLТ includes but is not limited to academic professionals. People involved in Celtic language learning and teaching from every walk of life are invited to participate, including:

- Community-based language teachers
- Celtic language enthusiasts
- Celtic language policy makers
- Celtic-language musicians.

We are now accepting abstracts for twenty-minute talks in any of the following (or related) areas:

- Methods, techniques, and best practices in teaching Celtic languages
- Incorporating Celtic cultures into the classroom or learning experience
- Application of computer technology to Celtic language teaching or research
- Pedagogical materials: what works, what doesn't
- Topics in Celtic linguistics, sociolinguistics, and Second Language Acquisition
- Language policy and planning in the Celtic world
- Promotion or appreciation of Celtic languages and cultures

Please send abstracts of between 200-300 words to Kevin Scannell <kscanne@gmail.com> by April 1, 2018. Information about accommodations and conference registration will be available on the NAACLТ web site.

We offer the Seán Tierney Scholarship (a $250 value) to offset the cost of attending the conference. If you are interested in presenting a paper and would benefit from this scholarship, please email Aralt Mac Giolla Chainnigh <aralt@gaeilge.ca> when you register for the conference.
